ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION OF THE IRVING CLUB.

KNOW ALL MEN BY THESE PRESENTS, That we the undersigned, the officers of the Society called "THE IRVING SOCIETY," of the City of Astoria, Clatsop County, State of Oregon, duly elected to said offices respectively, according to the uses and regulations of said Society, as hereinafter named and mentioned, do hereby associate ourselves for the purpose of incorporation under the laws of the State of Oregon relating to the incorporation of societies, having for their object the development of the physical or mental capacities of its members, do hereby make, publish, subscribe and adopt the following articles of incorporation, that is to say:

ARTICLE I.

The name assumed by this corporation, and by which it shall be known is THE IRVING CLUB.

ARTICLE II.

The duration of this corporation is unlimited.

ARTICLE III.

The object of this corporation, and the business and pursuit it proposes to engage in, shall be to establish, equip, keep and maintain a Club house, at the City of Astoria, with the usual and other convenient appliances of a social club, for its members, and to provide ways and means for the development of the physical and mental capacities of its members, and their social advantages, improvement and enjoyment in connection therewith, and for such object and purposes to purchase, acquire, receive, possess, lease, rent, own, hold, enjoy, sell, convey, mortgage, pledge, give, trust, and dispose of such real and personal property as may be necessary or desirable or convenient to carry out the object and pursuit of this corporation.

ARTICLE IV.

The estimated value of all the property and money possessed by said Society, at the date hereof, is twenty-eight hundred ($2,800) dollars; and the sources of its income are from dues from its members, who are to contribute and pay fees and dues for the enjoyment of its advantages.

ARTICLE V.

The title of the officers making these articles of incorporation are as follows: C. W. Fulton, President; W. T. Chutter, first Vice-President; E. W. Tallant, second Vice-President; H. G. Smith, Secretary; Frank Patton, Treasurer; G. C. Fulton, Director; F. J. Taylor, Director; Frank L. Parker, Director; H. F. Prael, Director; S. S. Gordon, Director; and their successors shall be elected on the second Monday of November, 1893, and thereafter on the second Monday of November of each year. The voting for such officers shall be by ballot.

ARTICLE VI.

The location of this corporation shall be at the City of Astoria, Clatsop county, State of Oregon.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, we, the officers of said Society, (Irving Club,) pursuant to a resolution of the said Society duly passed on Monday, November 14th, 1892, authorizing the execution hereof, have hereunto set our hands and seals this 16th day of November, A. D. 1892.

W. L. ROBB,
Notary Public for Oregon.

BY-LAWS.

ARTICLE I.

CORPORATE NAME AND SEAL.

SECTION 1. The corporate name of this Club is the Irving Club of Astoria, Oregon.

SEC. 2. The seal of the Club shall bear the inscription: Irving Club; organized Nov. 14, 1892; incorporated Nov. 16, 1892; an impression of which is as follows, to-wit:

ARTICLE II.

MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1. The number of regular members of this Club shall not at any time exceed two hundred and fifty.

SEC. 2. All applicants for membership who have been duly elected shall become regular members of the Club on signing the by-laws and paying an initiation fee of fifty dollars. The initiation fee may be increased to a sum not exceeding two hundred and fifty dollars, by the Directors, at any regular meeting of the Board whereat not less than seven Directors are present.

SEC. 3. (Non-resident Members.) Applicants for membership who do not reside in the county of Clatsop, and who have no established place of business therein, having been duly elected, shall become Non-resident members upon signing the by-laws and paying one-half the initiation fee of regular membership. Such members shall be entitled to all the privileges of the Club, save only those of voting, holding office, and proposing and seconding applicants for regular membership. Non-resident members becoming residents of the county of Clatsop, shall, on payment of the balance of the initiation fee, be entitled to all the full privileges of the Club, and subject to the rules and regulations governing all active members of the Club, and shall pay the regular monthly dues paid by active members.

SEC. 4. (Honorary Members.) Any distinguished person, either native or foreign, not resident of the county of Clatsop, may be elected an honorary member of the Club at any regular meeting of the Club, or of the Board of Directors. Such member shall not be called upon to pay dues or entrance fee.

ARTICLE III.

ELECTION OF REGULAR MEMBERS.

SECTION 1. Every candidate for admission must be proposed by one regular member and seconded by another. The name and residence of the applicant for admission shall be handed in writing to the Secretary, who shall cause the same, together with the name of the proposer and seconder, to be posted upon the bulletin board in the Club for the term of two weeks; at the expiration of that time, at a meeting which may be specially called by the President, or at their next regular meeting, the name of the applicant shall be submitted to the Board of Directors, who shall vote upon the application by ballot.

SEC. 2. At least seven Directors shall be present and vote at any meeting of the Board whereat a candidate for regular membership is to be balloted for, and one negative vote shall reject the application; Provided, That any Director may at the same meeting move the reconsideration of the vote; but after adjournment no candidate shall be again proposed until the expiration of six months after the date of his rejection.

SEC. 3. The proceedings of the Board of Directors upon the question of admission to regular membership, shall be held strictly confidential.

ARTICLE IV.

TEMPORARY MEMBERS.

SECTION 1. Non-residents of the State of Oregon temporarily visiting Astoria, having been duly proposed and seconded by regular members of the Club, and their application, with the names of their proposer and seconder, submitted to the Board of Directors, may, by a unanimous vote of the Directors present at any duly constituted meeting of the Board, be admitted as members of the Club, with all the privileges of a regular member thereof, save only those of voting, holding office, and proposing and seconding applicants for membership, for a period of three months, on the payment of three months' dues in advance.

No person, save only those designated in section two, shall be eligible to more than one consecutive term of temporary membership.

SEC. 2. Officers of the army and navy of every nation, of the United States Coast Survey, and of any scientific corps engaged in the service of any government, not permanent residents of Oregon, having been duly proposed and seconded by regular members of the Club, and their application, with the names of their proposer and seconder, having been submitted to the Board of Directors, may be, by the directors at a duly constituted meeting of the board, admitted as temporary members, with like privileges as other temporary members, on payment of three months' dues in advance; and may, in like manner, during the entire time that they shall retain their qualifications, retain their membership by continuing to pay their regular three months' dues in advance.

ARTICLE V.

EXPULSION OF MEMBERS.

SECTION 1. If there is any good reason to suppose that any member has been guilty of any conduct likely to endanger the harmony, welfare, or good order, of the Club, or which is in violation of the provisions of the by-laws or rules and regulations of the Club, it shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to call a special meeting of the Club to inquire into such conduct, and to notify said members of such meeting, and the object thereof, and of what misconduct he is supposed to be guilty. At such meeting the conduct of said member shall be examined into and a hearing of such member be had, and a ballot shall be taken as to the expulsion of such member. If two-thirds of the members present vote for expulsion, said member shall be expelled. No member so expelled shall be released from his obligation.

SEC. 2. If any member shall neglect to pay his monthly dues, or a bill due the Club, on or before the fifteenth day after the payment of the same shall have been demanded of him, the Board of Directors shall cause personal notice to be given him to pay the same; if he fail to pay the same within one month after such notice is so given, he shall cease to be a member of the Club; Provided, always, That the Board of Directors shall have power, on good cause shown, to restore any such member within thirty days after such loss of membership.

SEC. 3. After the service of personal notice, as provided in section two hereof, such member shall not be permitted to incur any further indebtedness to the Club until his former indebtedness shall be canceled.

ARTICLE VI.

OFFICERS.

The officers of this Club shall be a President, two Vice Presidents, a Secretary, and a Treasurer, all of whom shall be ex-officio directors, and who, together with five other directors, to be chosen from the regular members of the Club, shall constitute the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE VII.

ELECTION OF OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. The officers and directors shall be elected by ballot at the annual meeting of the Club, and shall hold their offices for one year, and until their successors are elected and qualified.

SEC. 2. The President, Vice Presidents, Secretary, and Treasurer, shall be separately nominated and balloted for, and a majority of the votes cast in each case shall be necessary for an election.

SEC. 3. The five Directors shall be nominated and balloted for in manner following: Each member present shall prepare a ticket with the names of five regular members of the Club thereon, which tickets shall be collected and tallied in the manner usual with ballots, and the five candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected. In the event of a tie vote, whereby more than five directors would appear elected, another ballot shall be taken, including only the names of those candidates so tied on the number of votes next succeeding the director or directors elected on the previous ballot.

SEC. 4. By unanimous consent of the members present at any annual meeting of the Club, the Secretary may be instructed to cast the unanimous vote of such meeting for any officer or director, and the same having been done, such officer or director shall be declared elected.

ARTICLE VIII.

VACANCIES IN OFFICE.

SECTION 1. All vacancies in office shall be filled by the Board of Directors.

SEC. 2. Vacancies in the offices of President, Vice-Presidents, Secretary, and Treasurer, shall be filled from the Board of Directors. Vacancies in the Board of Directors shall be filled from the regular members of the Club.

ARTICLE IX.

POWERS AND DUTIES OF OFFICERS.

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the President to preside at all meetings of the Club and of the Board of Directors; to call all meetings of the Club, or of the Board of Directors, provided for by the by-laws; to nominate all standing committees provided for by the by-laws, and to present the same to the Board of Directors at their first meeting after the election, for confirmation; to sign, together with the Secretary, on behalf of the Club, all contracts, bonds and other written instruments, approved by the Board of Directors; to see that the by-laws and rules and regulations made by the Board of Directors are rigidly enforced, and to exercise a general supervision over all the affairs of the Club; and he shall have such other powers, and perform such other duties, as are in the by-laws specially provided. He shall, at the annual meeting, make a report of the accounts and general concerns of the Club during the previous year, and shall present an estimate of the receipts and disbursements for the current year.

SEC. 2. In the absence of the President, his duties shall devolve upon one of the Vice-Presidents.

SEC. 3. The Secretary shall keep an accurate record of the proceedings of the Club and the Board of Directors; shall have custody of the books, papers, documents, articles of incorporation, seal, and accounts of the Club; shall attend to the official correspondence of the Club and of the Board of Directors, and, in the absence of the President and both Vice Presidents, he shall call to order any general or special meeting of the Club or of the Board of Directors, for the election of a temporary chairman.

For the purpose of aiding the Secretary in the performance of his duties, he may employ an assistant secretary, or bookkeeper, at such a salary as the Board of Directors may designate, who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the Secretary.

SEC. 4. The Treasurer shall, on the first day of each month, demand from each member the payment of the amount due by him for dues or bills incurred, and he shall receive all the funds of the Club, and shall disburse the same under the direction of the Board of Directors; he shall deposit the funds of the Club, in its name, with a bank or banks to be designated by the Board of Directors; he shall submit a statement of his accounts at each monthly meeting of the Board of Directors, with proper vouchers, and shall settle his accounts with the Club whenever required to do so by the Board of Directors, and he shall perform such other duties as may be provided by the by-laws in special cases.

SEC. 5. The Board of Directors shall have the management of the Club, and of its affairs, and shall constitute its governing power in all matters affecting its finances, discipline, and harmony, and they shall prescribe such rules for its regulation as may from time to time be found necessary or convenient for its due and proper management, and shall authorize all expenditures of its moneys. They shall have the power to impose a fine or fines—not exceeding twenty-five dollars for the first offense—for any breach of the by-laws, (where a fine for such breach is not specially provided for therein), or of any rules or regulations made by them. They shall employ and discharge all servants of the Club, and shall fix, reduce, or increase their salaries.

Three of the Directors shall constitute a quorum at any meeting of the Board of Directors, except as provided in articles II and III hereof.

In addition to the powers enumerated in this section, the Board of Directors shall have such other powers as in the by-laws may be conferred upon them in special cases.

ARTICLE X.

REMOVAL FROM OFFICE.

The Club may remove any officer thereof from office, on good cause shown, by a majority vote of the regular members of the Club, at a special meeting called for that purpose.

ARTICLE XI.

MEETINGS OF THE CLUB.

SECTION 1. There shall be an annual meeting of the Club held on the second Monday in November in each year at 8 P. M., which may be adjourned to any day within one week thereafter by a vote of the majority of the members present.

The order of business at such annual meeting shall be:

1. Reading minutes of the last annual meeting.
2. Report of President.
3. Amendments to by-laws.
4. Miscellaneous business.
5. Election of officers.

SEC. 2. The Board of Directors may call special meetings of the Club, at such times as they may deem necessary, and shall call a special meeting at any time, on application in writing of ten regular members of the Club, stating the object thereof.

Notice of each special meeting, stating the object thereof, shall be posted on the bulletin board of the Club for at least two days preceding the meeting, and a copy thereof shall be, by the Secretary, sent to each regular member of the Club then in the city of Astoria at least two days prior to said meeting.

SEC. 3. At any annual or special meeting of the Club, except a special meeting called for the removal of an officer of the Club, twenty regular members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

ARTICLE XII.

MEETING OF DIRECTORS.

There shall be a regular meeting of the Board of Directors on the second Tuesday in each month. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the President on such notice as the exigencies of the case may require.

ARTICLE XIII.

OWNERSHIP.

The legal title to and ownership of all the property, effects, and assets, of the Club, is vested in the Corporation; Provided, always. That all interest of any member in the property of the Club shall be lost by loss of membership.

ARTICLE XIV.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

SECTION 1. To assist the Board of Directors in the management of the Club, there shall be four Standing Committees, to-wit: An executive Committee, a House Committee, a Wine Committee, and a Reading-room Committee.

The Executive Committee shall consist of the President, or, in his absence, a Vice President, who shall be chairman thereof, and the chairman of each of the other committees.

The other Standing Committees shall be committees of three each; and there shall be on each of said committees one Director, who shall be the chairman thereof.

All of the Standing Committees, except the Executive Committee, shall be appointed by the President, with the concurrence of the Board of Directors.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE.

SEC 2. It shall be the duty of the Executive Committee to examine and audit all accounts and bills of the Club as often as the same shall be deemed necessary, but at least once in each month.

The bills of the Club relating to any department under charge of one of the other Standing Committees, shall, before being presented to the Executive Committee for auditing, be carefully examined by at least one member of the committee in whose department the bill has been made, and if found to be correct, shall be marked by the member or members of such committee examining the same, on the face thereof, "Approved," and the member or members so approving the same shall sign their names thereto. If any bill on examination as aforesaid, shall be found to be incorrect, the committee in whose department the same was made shall procure the same to be corrected before submitting the same to the Executive Committee; or, if this can not be done, shall submit the same to the Executive Committee with a statement of the objections thereto.

All bills approved by the Executive Committee shall be marked on the face thereof by the President, or, in his absence, a Vice President, "Audited," and on so marking the same he shall sign his name thereto.

HOUSE COMMITTEE.

SEC. 3. It shall be the duty of the House Committee to take general charge of all the club-rooms, excepting those which are especially placed under the charge of some other committee, and to make such rules and regulations respecting the use and care of the same as may appear to be necessary.

WINE COMMITTEE.

SEC 4. It shall be the duty of the Wine Committee to take charge of the wine department of the Club; to purchase all liquors, cigars, and other articles for said department, and to prescribe such scale of prices for the same as it shall deem proper.

SEC. 5. It shall also be the duty of the House Committee to take charge of the billiard and card rooms, and of the lavatories connected therewith; to purchase all articles used therein, and to make such rules for the regulation of said department as it shall deem necessary.

READING-ROOM COMMITTEE.

SEC. 6. It shall be the duty of the Reading-room Committee to take charge of the reading-rooms; to subscribe for, or purchase, such magazines, periodicals, and papers, as will suit the general taste of the members of the Club, and to prescribe such rules and regulations for the government of its department and the rooms under its charge as may be deemed necessary to secure the members of the Club the greatest amount of comfort and convenience in the use of the rooms under its charge.

SEC. 7. A list of the Standing Committees, with the names of the members of each committee, shall be posted by the Secretary in the principal room of the Club House.

SEC. 8. All vacancies in Standing Committees shall be filled by the President, subject to the approval of the Board of Directors.

SEC. 9. All complaints shall be made to the President, or to a member of the committee in whose department the neglect, offense, or default lies.

SEC. 10. Contracts by Standing Committees involving an expenditure of more than one hundred dollars, shall first be submitted to the Board of Directors for its approval.

ARTICLE XV.

NOTICE TO MEMBERS.

SECTION 1. On the election of each new member, the Secretary shall forthwith notify him of his election, furnish him with a list of the members, a copy of the by-laws and rules, and request him to pay to the Treasurer his initiation fee and first month's dues.

SEC. 2 No newly elected member shall enjoy any of the advantages or privileges of the Club until he has paid said initiation fee and first month's dues. If he neglect, for the period of ten days from the date of notification of his election, to pay the same, the Board of Directors shall cause his name to be erased from the list of members.

SEC. 3. The receipt of the Treasurer, Secretary, or Assistant Secretary, shall be considered the only sufficient proof of payment of these sums, and it shall entitle the member admitted to every benefit of the Club; said payment, and his signature to the by-laws, shall be deemed evidence of his promise to obey all rules of the Club, and of his submission to their restrictions and penalties.

ARTICLE XVI.

INFRACTION OF RULES.

Any infraction of the by-laws, or of such rules and regulations as may from time to time be made by the Board of Directors or Standing Committees, shall be taken immediate cognizance of by the President, and be by him reported to the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE XVII.

MONTHLY DUES.

The dues shall be two and one half dollars per month in all cases, except those hereinafter otherwise specified.

NON-RESIDENT MEMBERS.

Members not residing in the county of Clatsop, and not doing business therein, shall pay monthly dues of one dollar and a half, in advance.

ARMY AND NAVY MEMBERS.

Officers of the army and navy of every nation, of the United States Coast Survey, and any scientific corps of any nation, not permanent residents of Oregon, and who do not reside in Astoria, and who are temporary members of the Club, shall be charged dues at the rate of one dollar and one-half per month, and shall pay three month's dues in advance.

ABSENT MEMBERS.

SECTION 1. Any member intending to be absent from the city for more than one month may be placed on the list of absent members, by giving previous notice in writing to the Board of Directors of said intention, and paying into the treasury his first annual dues.

SEC. 2. The dues of absent members shall be ten dollars a year, or for any portion of a year.

ARTICLE XVIII.

AMUSEMENTS AND GAMES.

SECTION 1. All games or amusements within the Club House shall be under the supervision and subject to the approval of the Board of Directors.

SEC. 2. The Board of Directors shall have power to suppress any and all gambling games which, in its opinion, may bring the Club into disrepute or interrupt its harmony.

ARTICLE XIX.

OPENING AND CLOSING.

The Club House shall be open to the members of the Club between the hours of 8 o'clock A. M. and one o'clock A. M. of the day following. No member shall be admitted to the Club House after 1 o'clock A. M.; Provided, That such members as may be actually within the Club House at the hour of 1 o'clock A. M. shall not be required to leave the same on account of this rule.

ARTICLE XX.

REMOVAL OR INJURY OF BOOKS.

No member shall take away from the Club House, upon any pretext whatsoever, any newspaper, pamphlet, book, or other property of the Club, or in any way mutilate, injury, or destroy, the same, under a penalty of not less than five or more than twenty-five dollars' fine for each offense, which fine the Board of Directors, on due proof of the offense, are required to enforce, and have the same charged in the next monthly bill of the offending member.

ARTICLE XXI.

INVITATION TO NON-RESIDENTS.

SECTION 1. Any regular member may introduce a non-resident to the Club, by procuring from the Secretary a card of admission, which shall be signed by the President and Secretary, and whereon shall appear the names of the non-resident and of the member introducing him; and secretary shall keep, or cause to be kept, a correct record of all such visitors' cards, together with the date of issue. Such cards shall entitle the non-resident to all the privileges of the Club for a period of fifteen days. At the time of first introducing him to the Club, his name and place of residence, and the name of the member introducing him, shall be inscribed by them in the visitors' book of the Club: Provided, That no member shall have more than three cards issued on his application outstanding at one time.

SEC. 2. No non-resident so introduced, after having been introduced, shall be again introduced until he has been absent from the city for a period of three months; and in no event shall any non-resident be introduced more than twice in any one year: Provided, That any three Directors may have the discretionary power to grant cards of invitation for such period, and at such times, as they may deem proper.

SEC. 3. Any member introducing a non-resident as aforesaid, shall be responsible for the payment of any indebtedness to the Club contracted by him.

ARTICLE XXII.

RESIDENTS OF THE CITY.

SECTION 1. Persons residing in the city of Astoria, or within a distance of fifty miles therefrom, calling to see any member, shall be shown into the reception room, where they shall be received by the member called on. Such callers shall be excluded from all other parts of the Club House.

SEC. 2. The visitors' or reception room, having been set apart for visitors, the use thereof by the members as an office for meeting of tradesmen, or for the transaction of business, or for any other purpose than the receiving of visitors, is expressly prohibited.

ARTICLE XXIII.

HOUSE RULES.

SECTION 1. No servant shall be reprimanded, or in any way punished, by a member.

SEC. 2. Any member breaking or injuring any article or articles belonging to the Club, shall pay the prime cost of such article or articles, or replace the same.

SEC. 3. No servant, except the messenger boy, shall be sent from the Club House on an errand for a member.

SEC. 4. The smoking of pipes or cigarettes in the Club House is prohibited.

SEC. 5. No dogs shall be allowed in the Club House.

SEC. 6. A register shall be kept at the Club House, in which any member may record his name and address. Notices mailed to any member at the address noted in said register shall be considered as correctly directed. If a member fail to record his address in the register, notices sent or mailed to his last address known to the Secretary of the Club, shall, ten days after the same are so sent, or mailed, be held to have been received.

SEC. 7. No political or sectarian demonstration shall be made in the Club House.

SEC. 8. All communications in relation to the affairs of the Club must be made to the Board of Directors in writing.

SEC. 9. No member shall, under any pretext or in any manner whatsoever, receive any salary or compensation from the funds of the Club.

SEC. 10. No proxy from a member shall be available for voting.

SEC. 11. No member, guest, or visitor, shall give any money or gratuity to any servants of the Club, excepting as a subscription to a general fund at Christmas time.

SEC. 12. Suitable frames shall be placed in conspicuous places in the Club House, in which all notices shall be posted.

SEC. 13. No member shall be permitted to treat another member in Club House.

ARTICLE XXIV.

AMENDMENTS.

These by-laws may be amended or rescinded by a vote of the majority of all the Directors of the Club, at any regular meeting of the Board of Directors, or at any special meeting of said Board called for that purpose; but only upon a concurrence, or upon the request, of the vote of two-thirds of the members of the Club present at the annual meeting of the Club, or at any special meeting of the Club called for that purpose. No amendment or rescission shall be so concurred in, or so requested by the members, at any meeting of the Club, unless a copy of such amendment or rescission shall have been furnished the Secretary at least two weeks previous to such meeting of the Club, and has been posted as herein provided. It shall be the duty of the Secretary to cause all such proposed amendments, or rescissions, to be posted on the bulletin board of the Club for not less than one week previous to such meeting of the Club.
